- A valid Italian issued driving licence with photo is only acceptable photo ID for travel on domestic flights within Italy ONLY
- For British and Irish citizens only, who are travelling on flights to/from the United Kingdom to/from the Republic of Ireland, a valid driving licence with photo is acceptable photo ID
- In accordance with Article 28(1) of the 1951 UN Convention, a valid UN Refugee Convention Travel

- Document issued by a Government in place of a valid passport is acceptable.
- N.B. Children under 16 years (including infants) travelling with an adult are required to have photo-ID when travelling on flights between European Economic Area (EEA) countries. Acceptable photo-ID for children under 16 is either a valid passport or a valid National Identity Card issued by an EEA country.

Photo-ID for children under 16 years is not required in the following circumstances:

- Children travelling with an adult on UK domestic flights and UK-Republic of Ireland-UK routes.
- Children included on the passport of the parent with whom they are travelling.
- German children under 10 in possession of a valid German Government Kinderausweis travel document.
- Italian children in possession of a valid Certificato Di Nascita which has been endorsed as "VALIDO PER L'ESPATRIO" valid for travel and signed by "IL QUESTORE" subject to acceptance for entry to your destination.

Residence cards, family books or military id cards will not be accepted for travel in place of the required valid photo-ID detailed above.

Expired or damaged forms of photo-ID will not be accepted for any flight.

Failure to present valid photo-ID matching the names on your reservation will result in your being refused check-in.

REDUCED MOBILITY PASSENGERS

Any passenger with reduced mobility must contact their local reservation centre on the day of booking to ensure that their needs can be recorded. Failure to do so will result in the passenger being unable to travel. Click here for more information.
